

May Fun Facts

Palmyra Eagle Area Schools

Monday

Tuesday

Wednesday

Thursday

Friday

	1	2	3	4
	Q: What do you call a cow that's afraid of everything? A: A cow-ard! 	May is National Egg Month. We're celebrating by having omelets for lunch.	People in China and Hong Kong like to eat chicken feet. I think I'll stick with chicken nuggets. Have some for lunch today!	In the 1600s Early American colonists called apples "winter bananas". Have a winter banana with your lunch today.
7 May is also National Strawberries Month. Have some strawberries and bananas with your lunch to help celebrate. 	8 Did you know that the word burrito means "little donkey" ? You can have a "little donkey " for lunch today!	9 Random cow fact: Like human fingerprints, no two cow's spots are exactly the same. 	10 There are mandarin oranges on the menu today. Did you know that there are several varieties of mandarin orange? There are Imperial, Ellendale, Murcott and Satsumas. Satsumas are what we serve for lunch.	11 May is a busy month – it's also National Salad Month! Celebrate by having some salad with your lunch today.
14 Q: Why are fish so bad at basketball? A: They don't like getting close to the net! Fish for lunch today.	15 Q: How do chickens stay in shape? A: They eggs-ercise. You can eggs-ercise today by having an omelet with your lunch.	16 Today we have red and green pepper strips on the menu. Peppers can also be purple, yellow orange and brown. 	17 Q: Where do cows go to dance? A: The meatball Spaghetti and meatballs for lunch today!	18 The world's biggest tomato fight happens each year in a small town in Spain. 40,000 people throw 150,000 tomatoes at each other. Have some tomatoes with your lunch, but please, no throwing.
21 Did you know that ravioli has been eaten for more than 700 years? It must be good – try some for lunch today!	22 Q: What is a horse's favorite fruit? A: Straw-berries. Get it "straw" berries. Strawberries are on the menu today. 	23 We've mentioned before that Chef Boyardee was a real person. Did you know that the man who invented alfredo sauce was really named Alfredo? Try his yummy invention at lunch today with chicken alfredo.	24 People in Guatemala like to eat sheep soup. The soup for lunch today is Chicken Noodle (that sounds a little better than sheep soup). 	25 No School
Memorial Day 	29 Fish is on the menu today. Did you know that the fastest swimming fish is the swordfish? It can swim 70 miles per hour.	30 In Italian, spaghetti means "string". You can have string (I mean spaghetti) for lunch today.	31 Q: What do polar bears eat for lunch? A: Iceburg-ers No iceburg-ers today, but we do have pizza burgers for lunch.	